KIM MEEDER
author of Fierce Beauty

1. We're here with Kim Meeder, author of Fierce Beauty. Kim, where did the idea for this book come from?
2. Women are constantly bombarded with the lie that how they look is more valuable than who they are. How do you see this in your own life and in the lives of the women around you?
3. You write, "Authentic beauty is revealed in what we do for those in need around us." How do you encourage women to pursue this type of beauty?
4. In the book, you describe the death of your parents when you were only nine years old. What was the impact of that and how did God use that experience to teach you about fierce beauty?
5. You heard God speaking to you: "The things you choose to entrust to Me you will have forever. But the things that you choose to hold on to will all perish." Tell us about how you've learned to entrust your very life to God.
6. You write about a rescued dog, Dakota, who survived despite her neck being pierced by an arrow. What did that scenario teach you about hidden sin, and why is that so important if we're to stand for Christ?
7. So many women don't think they have anything of value to offer to the Lord. How can the Lord use even the smallest, most humble offering?
8. We often see our scars as ugly marks that forever remind us of a painful part of our past. In your experience, how does the Lord use them to encourage others? Can even warriors have scars?
9. You and your husband, Troy, have many adventures together. What was going through your mind while you were swimming with sharks, and how did that experience remind you of the peace that God offers?
10. You and Troy also own and operate Crystal Peaks Youth Ranch, a non-profit organization that rescues abandoned and neglected horses and pairs them with disadvantaged children. Can you share with us a story from the ranch that really impacted you?
11. Where can we learn more about you, your other books, and the ranch?
