

Suggested Interview Questions for STEVEN FURTICK

author of Greater: Dream Bigger. Start Smaller. Ignite God's Vision for Your Life.

1. Your new book is titled Greater, where you're calling Christians to dream bigger, start smaller and ignite God's vision for their lives. What does greater mean?
2. You quote John 14:12 where Jesus says, "...they will do even greater things..." What do you think He meant by this?
3. Why is mediocrity and complacency so rampant in the church?
4. When did the idea of greater take root for you?
5. You use the prophet Elisha as an example. How does his life reflect greater living?
6. If someone says "yes, I want to do greater things," what's the first step?
7. What do you mean by radical obedience?
8. What obstacles or hurdles can someone expect when they set out to act on God's vision for their lives?
9. Is greater a destination? How do we know when we're living God's vision for us?
10. How are you living out these principles with the explosive growth of the congregation you pastor at Elevation Church in Charlotte?
11. If someone wants to dig deeper into Greater, what resources do you have available?
12. Where can our listeners find you online?

For more information, please contact:

Beverly Rykerd, Publicity Manager, WaterBrook Multnomah Publishing Group
(719) 268-1935, brykerd@randomhouse.com, www.waterbrookmultnomah.com/press-room