Chuck Black's Kingdom Series

Homeschooling dad wrote biblical allegories to help his kids love God's word

Colorado Springs, Colo. – Homeschooling dad Chuck Black wondered why his kids, so quick to love stories of adventure and knights, didn't have the same enthusiasm for the stories of God's Word. From his family's bedtime stories came The Kingdom Series (Multnomah Books), a six-part biblical allegory that covers major events in biblical history from Genesis to Revelation, set in a medieval land of knights and castles. Parents who want to encourage imagination but who object to magical elements will be pleased to know there is no magic, mysticism, or darker fantasy in the series, which is written for ages eight and up but appropriate for all ages. Many families have found them to be perfect read-aloud books.
