

For Immediate Release
from WaterBrook Press
a division of Random House, Inc.

Beverly Rykerd, Publicity Manager 719-268-1935
brykerd@randomhouse.com

Victorian Scotland Provides the Snowy Setting for Liz Curtis Higgs's First Christmas Novella

Colorado Springs, Colo.— New York Times best-selling novelist Liz Curtis Higgs delights readers with her seventh foray into Scottish historical fiction and her first Christmas novella, A Wreath of Snow (Oct. 2, 2012/WaterBrook Press). With carefully chosen period detail and Higgs's inspired storytelling talent, this charming hardcover gift book transports readers to 1894 Stirling on a snowbound Christmas Eve, when two travelers discover a shared history that threatens to leave them tangled in a knot of regret..

Can Margaret Campbell bind the wounds that have torn apart her family? And how will Gordon Shaw make amends, when the consequences of his past mistakes cannot be erased? Readers are invited to come home for the holidays with Margaret and Gordon, as they discover why forgiveness is the best gift of all.

“A wonderful story of redemption and restoration that will warm your heart during the Christmas season—or any time of year!”

—Francine Rivers, author of Redeeming Love

As warm as a woolen scarf on a cold winter's eve, A Wreath of Snow is a tender story of love and forgiveness, wrapped in a celebration of all things Scottish, all things Victorian, and especially, all things Christmas.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Liz Curtis Higgs is a conference speaker with Women of Faith and the author of thirty books, with more than three million copies in print. Her Scottish historical novels have won the hearts of readers and reviewers around the globe. Whence Came a Prince received a Christy Award for Best Historical Novel. Here Burns My Candle won the Romantic Times Reviewers' Choice Award for Best Inspirational Romance, and Mine Is the Night was a New York Times bestseller. Liz and her family live in a nineteenth-century farmhouse in Louisville, Kentucky. Visit her fiction website: www.MyScottishHeart.com.

Fiction/Christian Fiction

ISBN 978-1-4000-7217-0 • Hardcover • 224 Pages • $14.99 U.S./$17.99 Canada
eBook: ISBN 978-0-307-72956-9