

Author Biography for
DAVE BURCHETT

Dave Burchett

Dave Burchett started his career as a disc jockey in Ohio, and later moved into sports broadcasting. An Emmy Award-winning television sports director, he has had the thrill of televising events ranging from baseball Hall of Famer Nolan Ryan’s no-hit game to the Summer Olympics. He and his wife, Joni, are former staff members of Campus Crusade’s Athletes in Action. They currently reside in Garland, Texas where Joni is a Special Education Coordinator specializing in elementary students. Dave and Joni have three adult sons and a daughter in heaven.

The author of Bring 'Em Back Alive and When Bad Christians Happen to Good People and a blogger on Crosswalk.com and theFish.com, Dave writes honestly and authentically out of his personal experience.
