NARNIAC

FINAL EXAM

THE NARNIAC FINAL EXAM is intended for the passionate and careful reader, whether child or adult. Younger readers may prefer the Narniac Final Exam for Little Ones, page 317. Both tests cover all seven Chronicles.

Here are your instructions:

1. Please, no blubbing.
2. Do not write in your copy of Roar!—you or someone else may want to take the same test later. Instead, download a copy of the Exam from RoarofNarnia.com. You could also make a photocopy of these pages, or simply write your answers on a separate sheet.
3. Open book, or closed—your choice.
4. For extra help without opening a Chronicle, you may “Blow the Horn” by turning to the end of the test for hints. (Parts 1, 4, 6, and 8 come with hints.)
5. When you’re finished, see p. 436 for the answers. Then add up your score to discover which level of Namian honors you have won (see p. 315).

PART 1. WHO SAID THAT?

Read the quotation and write down who spoke these words. (Blow the Horn for help—see page 322.)

1. “Aslan’s instructions always work: there are no exceptions.”
2. “Where I come from, they don’t think much of men who are bossed about by their wives.”
3. “Who said anything about safe? ’Course he isn’t safe. But he’s good.”
4. “The help will come. It may be even now at the door.”
5. “If you had felt yourself sufficient, it would have been a proof that you were not.”
6. “You’ve no idea what an appetite it gives one, being executed.”
7. “It must be exciting to live on a thing like a ball. Have you ever been to the parts where people walk about upside-down?”
8. “Minions!”
9. “In a civilized country like where I come from, the ships are so big that when you’re inside you wouldn’t know you were at sea at all.”
10. “If she was a boy, she’d be whipped for disobeying orders.”
11. “There’s no point in having a new dress on if one’s to go about shut up like this.”
12. “I’ve brought you the apple you wanted, sir.”
13. “It isn’t Narnia, you know. It’s you. We shan’t meet you there. And how can we live, never meeting you?”
14. “We don’t know when he will act. In his time, no doubt, not ours. In the meantime he would like us to do what we can on our own.”
15. “I’d rather be killed fighting for Narnia than grow old and stupid at home and perhaps go about in a bath-chair and then die in the end just the same.”
16. “It may be for us the door to Aslan’s country and we shall sup at his table tonight.”
17. “Pooh! Who’s afraid of Aslan?”
18. “Are you going to tolerate this mutiny, this poltroonery? This is a panic, this is a rout.”
19. “I’d sooner be eaten by you than fed by anyone else.”
20. “Doubtless this signifies that Aslan will be our good lord, whether he means us to live or die.”

PART 2. CAN YOU RUMINATE IN RIDDLES?

Read all the clues, then guess which character they describe.

1. Who...

- _ is likely to give you jewelry?

- 6. What gifts, if any, did Father Christmas give to Mr. and Mrs. Beaver?
- 7. Who grew into a tall woman with black hair that fell almost to her feet?
- 8. Whose absence in Narnia prompted search parties and the posting of a reward?
- 9. What two characters (besides Dwarfs) knew how to sew?
- 10. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, what other two talking animals are mentioned as having gotten married (but not to each other)?
- 11. Who was most frequently scolded by Aslan?
- 12. On what two occasions did Aslan cry?
- 13. When did Lucy use the dagger that Father Christmas gave her?
- 14. Besides Susan and Lucy, who else rode on Aslan’s back?
- 15. What two animals were knighted?

PART 7. THE PROFILE OF EVIL

Abh! Finally some relief! Only two choices are possible here—true or false.

1. The evil Queen in The Magician's Nephew is also known as Your Deplorable Highness.
2. Turkish Delight, as we all know, grows on the Toffee Tree.
3. Uncle Andrew, as we all know, gets quite a bang out of his guinea pigs.
4. When the Black Knight (later revealed to be Prince Rilian) suffered from attacks of a “strange affliction,” he was tied to a silver chair. Good thing, because during the attacks he did not understand the truth about his circumstances!
5. In the garden, the Witch accused Digory of only pretending to love his father.
6. It was so-o-o nice of the Ape to make a lion suit for Puzzle.
7. During the battle at Anvard, Prince Rabadash shouted, “The bolt of Tash falls from above!” right before he got his hauberk hung up on a hook.
8. The god Tash smelled like petunias.
9. The White Witch was right: Because of Edmund's betrayal, his blood was her property.
10. The White Witch was wrong: There is a deeper magic from before the dawn of time that she didn't know about.

PART 8. WHAT ASLAN SAID

One voice in Narnia matters more than all the others.

Did you listen carefully to him? (Blow the Horn for help—see page 324.)

1. “Evil will come of that _____, but it is still a long way off, and I will see to it that the worst falls upon _____.”
2. “I call all times _____.”
3. “Things never happen the _____ way _____.”
4. “I will not always be _____.”
5. “Come further _____! Come further _____!”
6. “There is no other _____.”
7. “They have chosen cunning instead of _____.”
8. “_____, dear heart.”
9. “Let us be _____ to one another.”
10. “I am sad and _____. Lay your hands on my _____ so that I can feel you are there and let us _____ like that.”
11. “There will always be a _____ through.”
12. “All get what they want; they do not always _____ it.”
13. “You would not have _____ to me unless I had been calling to you.”
14. “If you had felt yourself sufficient, it would have been a _____ that you were not.”
15. “The term is over: the _____ have begun. The dream is ended: this is the morning.”

PART 9. WHAT THE STORYTELLER SAID

The voice of author C. S. Lewis offers strong opinions, wise explanations, and—when things get too scary—words of comfort. Do you remember what he said? Pick the ending that correctly completes the storyteller’s words.

1. What you see and hear depends a good deal on where you are standing; it also depends on
 - a. what you ate for breakfast.
 - b. what sort of person you are.
 - c. what sort of hat you’re wearing.
2. The trouble about trying to make yourself stupider than you really are is that you very often
 - a. just make more trouble.
 - b. fail.
 - c. succeed.

3. There's nothing that spoils the taste of good ordinary food half so much as the memory of

- a. bad magic food.
- b. good fairy food.
- c. wretched school food.

4. If one is nervous there's nothing like having your face toward the danger and having something warm and solid

- a. in your pocket.
- b. under your feet.
- c. at your back.

5. One of the worst results of being a slave and being forced to do things is that when there is no one to force you any more you find you have almost

- a. forgotten how to call home.
- b. lost the power of forcing yourself.
- c. no brains left to figure things out.

6. Giants of any sort are now so rare in England and so few giants are good-tempered that

- a. ten to one you have never seen a giant when his face is beaming.
- b. five to one you'll never see a giant playing in Piccadilly.
- c. you should think twice before you ask one for a bite of his fish and chips.

7. There are dozens of ways to give people a bad time if you are in your own home and they

- a. don't know all your tricks.
- b. don't like your mother's food.
- c. are only visitors.

8. Crying is all right in its way while it lasts. But you have to stop sooner or later, and then

- a. you still have to decide what to do.
- b. you still feel bad.
- c. you still have to blow your nose.

9. The more enchanted you get, the more you feel

- a. that you might be a magician.
- b. that you'll never find your way home.
- c. that you are not enchanted at all.

10. One always feels better when one has

- a. scolded a cat.
- b. made up one's mind.
- c. made one's bed.

PART 10. BIG IDEAS FOR NARNIACS

The Chronicles of Narnia are full of important truths for everyday life.

Pick the answer that is most correct in the following questions:

1. The older you get
 - a. the easier it is to get into Narnia.
 - b. the bigger Aslan becomes.
 - c. the more you like boring history lessons.
2. The more you know Aslan in Narnia
 - a. the more likely you are to go to church at a zoo.
 - b. the better you know Jesus on earth.
 - c. the more you want to eat Turkish Delight.
3. The gifts that the children found in the ruins of Cair Paravel could teach us a lot about our God-given interests and abilities. For example that:
 - a. God blesses us with special abilities to help us succeed at what He wants us to do for Him.
 - b. The interests and abilities we get from God are like toys—they can keep us from getting bored when we have nothing else to do.
 - c. Obviously the other kids should have been upset because they all didn't get Lucy's bottle of cordial.
4. The most important lesson from Aslan's death on the Stone Table is:
 - a. Never let a witch's friends get near your hair.
 - b. As you'd expect, God does not love greedy, lying boys and girls.
 - c. Like Aslan, Jesus paid the price for our sins by dying in our place.
5. What happened to Uncle Andrew should make you realize that:
 - a. If you're smart enough, you can play safely with evil powers.
 - b. Pride can get you in a lot of trouble.
 - c. Brandy is a good solution for the trouble your pride can get you into.
6. Remember the Dawn Treader's adventure in the Dark Island? Think about that a little and you'll see that:
 - a. Only wimps are afraid of the dark.
 - b. When it doesn't look like God is near, He probably isn't.
 - c. Most of us experience times when God seems far away, but He's always as close as a prayer.
7. No one is ever told
 - a. how to get to the Sunless Sea.
 - b. what's inside the Stable.
 - c. what would have happened.
8. If you do one good deed because you love Jesus, don't be surprised if your reward is:
 - a. to do another, harder, even more important deed for Him.
 - b. all the Turkish Delight you can eat.
 - c. to be given dinner with all the nice parts left out and sent to bed early.

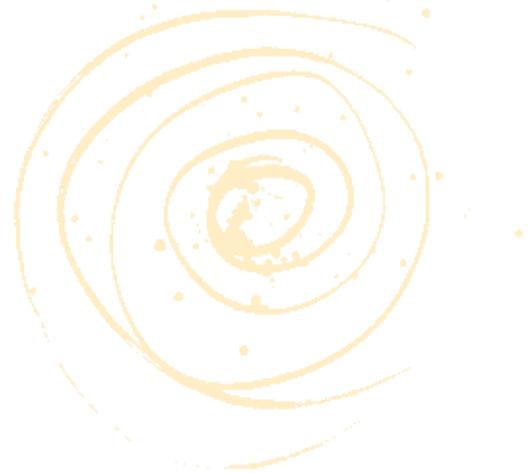

9. The long journey of Shasta and Aravis illustrates that all through the journey of our lives:

- a. God will take care of us if we're rich and important.
- b. God will want us to follow Him if our parents did.
- c. God will always take care of us, even when we're not thinking about Him.

10. Like the Narnians who followed Aslan, we don't have to be afraid to die because:

- a. Death is real, but for everyone who puts their trust in Jesus, death is just the beginning of a wonderful life with Him in heaven.
- b. Death is real, but after we die, we won't feel anything.
- c. Death isn't real.

HONORS for NARNIACS WHO HAVE STOOD THE TEST

Using the answer table starting on page 436, mark your answers. Then carefully add up your total points, scoring one point for each correct answer. Total points possible = 120. When you are finished, please approach the throne at Cair Paravel to claim your honors.

The Jewel Medallion, 97-120 points

You are pure brilliance, a myth in your own time, and a champion in battle.

The Reepicheep Reward, 73-96 points

You are courageous, honorable, large for a rodent, and annoyingly smart.

The Puddleglum Prize, 49-72 points

You are certainly smarter than you look and fearless in the heat of battle (is that your foot burning?).

The Bulgy Bear Badge, 25-48 points

Of course you had every right to take this test. Of course you'll do better next time. Of course you deserve some honey.

The Wimbleweather Consolation, 1-24 points

So you're not too clever, at least not yet. But you're likable, and for a small-ish giant, you have potential.
