

Taco Shack Guide →

I've eaten at hundreds of taco shacks and have only been seriously sick one time. Which is proof, I believe, that God exists. Here's a guide to finding authentic tacos in your hometown

- Tacos are under $2.00
- Tongue is a menu option
- They serve homemade horchata
- TVs are playing Spanish language soccer
- You may not be exactly sure of what you ordered
- Decor includes a mural, presumably of some location in Mexico
- After eating, you immediately want to invite your friends
