

MY LIGHTHOUSE

*a story
of finding
your way
home*

written by Ali Gilkeson
of Rend Collective

illustrated by New York Times
bestselling illustrator
Lee Wildish

~~~~~

For Cillian.
And for every human who has ever felt lost or alone.
—Ali Gilkeson

For all who shine bright. You will find your way.
—Lee Wildish

~~~~~

I always look forward to story time in our house. It's an incredible moment to witness a child's imagination run wild and free, a moment to catch a breath in a day of mayhem. I wrote this book to help my kids understand the importance of gratitude, adventure, and trust. May this story bring your family together as it has done mine.

—Ali Gilkeson

MY Lighthouse

A Story of Finding Your Way Home

written by ALI GILKESON
of Rend Collective

illustrated by LEE WILDISH
New York Times bestselling illustrator

This is a story about a house.

As you may or may not know, there are many different types of houses in this world:

bungalows

bird houses

semi-detached houses

cottages

country houses

tree houses

dog houses

doll houses

completely detached houses

greenhouses
(confusing because they're not actually green)

apartments and flats

chozas

temporary houses

the White House
(actually white but not the only white house)

and even the
Houses of Parliament

This, however, is the story of a lighthouse.

No, not a light house.

Or a light house.

But a lighthouse.

The one with a light
near the sea.

GREAT-GREAT-GRANDPA

UNCLE
SEAN

GREAT-GRANDPA AND GREAT-GRANDMA

GRANDMA AND GRANDPA

Auntie Betty

Mom, Dad and me

Boulder Zys

GRANDPA AND GRANDMA
WITH DAD

Fynn had lived in a lighthouse his whole life—just like his dad and his dad and his dad, right back to when it was built.

Fynn hated living in a lighthouse.

He just wanted to be normal and live in a regular square house like all his friends. Why did everything have to be round?

Round cooker,
round pictures,
round rugs,
round cat (well, he ate too much),
round bed,
round bath,
round head (oh wait—that's meant
to be round).

Anyway, you get the idea.

Continue reading...
order today!

BUY NOW

WATERBROOK

