SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS
FOR A ONE-TIME GROUP DISCUSSION

1

Who or what has most significantly influenced your identity as a Black Christian woman? How does God's original design offer something better?

2

How does understanding God's authority in defining our identities impact your acceptance of His design versus cultural expectations?

3

Give three examples of how the Gospel narrative redefines the role of women as life-givers, and what examples from Scripture resonate with this calling?

4

Describe a time you've experienced God's grace and redemption, preserving your purpose even through moments of imperfection or failure.

5

Why is it crucial to identify supportive and potentially harmful influences in your life, and how does this awareness contribute to your healing journey?

6

Discuss the statement, "God desires to heal everyone who is broken, even those who have caused harm." How does this perspective challenge or affirm your understanding of healing?

7

How does understanding God's provision for rest demonstrate His love for you, especially in the context of cultural pressures and personal expectations?

8

In what ways have you seen God's love and power sustain you during challenges or moments of doubt in your faith journey as a Black Christian woman?
