WAYS TO USE THE BOOK

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO HELP CHILDREN LEARN GOD'S PERFECT PLAN AND REDEEMPTIVE STORY IN THE BIBLE? HERE ARE SOME IDEAS!

Complete a YouVersion Bible App Reading Plan

Search “One Perfect Plan: The Bible's Big Story in Tiny Poems” under the Plans section for a free 5-day family devotional on the YouVersion app or Bible.com.

Start a 30-Week Bible Study

One Perfect Plan poetically presents the entire story arc of the Bible through vibrant illustrations and short rhymes. In one sitting, children can experience God’s redemptive plan—from Creation to the coming kingdom—as one beautiful story. And at the heart of it all is one person—Jesus. After the reading the book, use the chart in this resource for a 30-week outline of Scripture readings as a family, at school, or in your church group.

Complement Your Sunday School and Class Curriculum

Incorporate the book in your curriculum. If you are learning about the story of Jonah, use the poem “One big fish—it swallows Jonah alive! Three days in this tomb, and still he survives.” to summarize the story.

Try a Seek and Find Challenge

Read One Perfect Plan and spot these objects in the book: Dolphins, Little Dipper constellation, a rainbow, pyramids, a sling, jeweled bracelets, two angels, pita bread, a well, a donkey, bluebirds, and a crown. How many can you find?

Play a Scripture Hunt Game

Match each poem in One Perfect Plan with a verse from the Bible. For example, “One word—then light breaks into darkness; the sky, the seas, and life—how wondrous!” is a reference to Genesis 1:1.

Make Bookmarks

Use the activity sheet in this resource to make bookmarks with your favorite poems in One Perfect Plan.

Write Your Own Poems

Pick a Bible story and try writing a poem about it, or refer to the activity sheets in this resource for inspiration.
